ACI AVIATION CONSULTING HIRES GENERAL COUNSEL

January 18, 2007

ACI Aviation Consulting (ACI) is pleased to announce that Omar Saleh has joined the firm and will serve as the General Counsel and Vice President for ACI and the Airliner Price Guide (APG).

Prior to joining ACI, Mr. Saleh practiced law for almost 11 years with the nationally recognized law firm of AndrewsKurth LLP. As a member of the firm's corporate/reorganization section, Mr. Saleh represented corporate debtors, bankruptcy trustees, individual banks and bank groups, creditors' committees, equity committees and individual creditors in several of the nation's largest bankruptcies, many of which were those in the airline industry. Mr. Saleh's responsibilities will include providing consulting advice to clients on a variety of aviation related legal and financial matters as well as handling all legal related matters for ACI and APG.

In addition, Mr. Saleh will serve as the head of ACI's newly created financial services division, which will provide financial advisory services to existing and prospective ACI clients. Mr. Saleh holds a business degree from the University of Texas at Austin and a law degree from Creighton University School of Law, where he was a member of Creighton's Law Review.
